

SPRAY RATING TESTERS

Spray Rating Tester

KFG-2260

To measure the surface wetting resistance of fabric. The tester allows water to be sprayed through a nozzle with a specific spray pattern and flow rate onto a test specimen oriented at 45 degrees and 150mm below the nozzle at the center of the sample. After dispersal of the surface water, the penetration marks are measured against a rating chart.

AATCC Photographic Rating Chart

KFG-2261

Replacement Spray Nozzle and Rubber Sleeve

KFG-2262